Your name: _____ Signature: _____

2021-2022 Student Representative Nominees

Dylan Bellusci	My name is Dylan Bellusci and I am pretty new to Maryland, I live here with my girlfriend and our 3 cats (Woobie, Beto, and Oliver). I lived in California previously and the majority of my education has been done there. I graduated from California State University, Northridge with a degree in psychology with honors in 2021 and participated in the Functional Assessment and Healthy Behavior lab during my undergraduate career as a research assistant. I am currently enrolled in the master’s program at UMBC for applied behavior analysis, and work full time at the Kennedy Krieger Institute in the Pediatric Feeding Disorders Unit.
Xuehua (Shirley) Zhao	Xuehua “Shirley” Zhao is currently an Applied Behavior Analysis graduate student at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County and a clinical specialist at Kennedy Krieger Institute. Shirley assists in the evaluation and treatment of children with feeding disorders and develops interventions for target behaviors that improve the lives of the individuals and their families. Additionally, Shirley assists with the training of all newly hired or promoted staff. Shirley aims to become a Board Certified Behavior Analyst and to continue to work with children, especially those in vulnerable populations, and their families.
